Dr. Terri Sinclair is former Associate Professor/Director of Choral Activities at Coastal Carolina University, UNC-Charlotte and UNC-Asheville, and served three years on the music faculty at Sandhills Community College. Prior to entering higher education, Dr. Sinclair was Choral Director at Pinecrest High School. She is currently the Director of Music at Community Presbyterian Church. She holds the DMA in Choral Conducting from UNC-Greensboro, the MM in Choral Conducting from Florida State University, and the BM in Piano Performance from UNC-Chapel Hill.

Dr. Sinclair's choirs have performed at the Washington National Cathedral, the Lincoln Center, the Piccolo Spoleto Festival, and multiple state and regional music conferences. Her high school choirs performed for the NCMEA conference and her church choir has performed in Scotland.

Dr. Sinclair is a conductor for MidAmerica Productions Carnegie Hall Concert Series. She is a clinician for state and regional choral festivals, is past President for SCACDA and has led sessions at state and regional music conferences. She has four published compositions, one children's musical, numerous articles, and one book. She is listed in Who's Who of American Women, 26th ed. (2007-2008).